

LSAMP Student Ambassadors will serve as ambassadors/liaisons in addition to serving as a guide to new LSAMP students. LSAMP Ambassadors will assist with program recruitment during various events including LSAMP information sessions, STEM student organizations, etc. LSAMP Ambassadors will serve as primary resource to students at Rutgers–New Brunswick interested in learning more about the program.

Responsibilities/duties

- Each ambassador is to conduct a minimum of one workshop for the academic year
 - Students to sign up on canvas
 - Some workshops can be collaborative
- Proactive on social media (at times will take over LSAMP Instagram page to share posts)
- Promote LSAMP in student clubs and organizations (minimum of two (2) organizations)
- Promote LSAMP program in respective STEM courses
- Serve as a mentor and role model, both socially and academically
- Attend and assist with workshops, events, and or programs as needed or assigned
- Meet on a monthly basis with LSAMP program staff

Qualifications:

- Must be a current LSAMP scholar for at least one year
- Undergraduate research experience is not required (but is an advantage)
- Rising Junior or Senior in strong Academic Standing (3.0 GPA or higher)
- Strong interpersonal skills, a positive attitude, and someone who is self-motivated

Eligibility

- Must be a current LSAMP Scholar
- Must be a rising junior or senior
- Must be in good academic standing

Requirements:

- Must be able to work some evenings (to attend STEM student organizations' meetings to promote LSAMP) and weekends (to table to during main University events, i.e. Admitted Students Open Day, Rutgers Day, etc.)
- Must be available to work a minimum of 10 hours per month
- Must attend an Ambassador Leadership Training at the beginning of the Fall semester (end of August)

Position Time Period

- September-May of respective academic year (example, AY 2021-2022, or AY 2022-2023)

Compensation

- $1,000 total: $500 for Fall semester and $500 for Spring Semester